MURPHY FOLK MINUTES.

The writer, who has been on Grassy creek for the past five weeks, returned home Friday very much delighted with the trip.

Andrew Oldfield and Miss Alice Rose were married on the 21st at the home of the bride's parents, on this creek, Rev. W. L. Gevedon tying the knot.

Last week Henry Lawson and family moved from Clifty to the famous palace on the hill. There's no use talking, DeHarry Murphy is tickled over the new renter.

On the door of the cottage recently vacated by Gilbert Ratliff, and owned by Mort Cecil, the writer observed the following: "wanted, a good corn raiser, and one who will not burn rails." Could Lovey Dovey have marked it there?

Andrew, the little son of Mort Cecil, but better known as "Lovey Dovey," was yanking a dog by the tail. The animal got tired of the fun and sank his teeth into Lovey Dovey's arm, who then let go of the tail and went into the house a conquered hero.

An anniversary social was held Saturday evening at the home of Mort Cecil, in honor of Miss Ethel Cecil, the reigning belle of Consolation, who has just arrived at the bewitching age of 18 years. Beauty and talent from far and near graced the scene with splendor, and all claimed it was the grandest affair they had ever attended. SEVERAL candidates for county office were here Saturday and from the situation as they diagnose it, the Democratic candidates in the coming November election will "win hands down," in race horse parlance. Many of them are personally Hon. John W. Langley's friends, but fealty to the party, they say, will compel them to vote for Judge Amos Davis, who is admittedly as fine a citizen as the mountains can produce, and Democrats should be encouraged in the fact that the district is Democratic by 1,500. Stating the case as we see it, Judge Davis has the majority, but self-interest in the counties of Clark, Montgomery and Breathitt will reduce it because Mr. Langley had bills passed to the interest of their people. For instance, a bill for Clark, a bill for Montgomery, and a bill for Breathitt, which will bring several thousand dollars to each county. Some men will stand to their party regardless of every consideration, but usually "the bridge that carries us over safely" is the rule they go by, and Judge Davis and the party workers must watch that point. "Money makes the mare go" was never more appropriately applied than in the present race for congress, and unless Judge Davis and his friends can counteract the effect of it, he is in a hazardous place. Get to work, Democrats, if you want victory.

THE report was put in circulation last week that C. F. Kash, or "Little Doc," as he is familiarly called, would vote for certain of the Republican nominees, and we arise to remark that the rumor is without foundation. He is true blue when you put him to the test, and that means always a Democrat. So if you are betting even buttermilk to biscuit you had better lay them two to one, and then hedge if you can, or you will "come out de leedle end ov de horn." Briefly, if all Democrats are as true as "Doc," Bryan will be the next president, Amos Davis the next congressman, Sanford White the circuit judge, and Howard Stamper commonwealth's attorney.

Democrats of Wolfe County.

I am a candidate for the nomination for County Attorney in the Primary Election to be held on the 14th day of November, 1908, and take this method of addressing you in behalf of my candidacy, and in doing so desire to thank you for the substantial evidences of friendship and support given me in the past. I feel that my experience of 12 years in all the courts of your country amply qualifies me for the position which I seek. I know the needs of the county and the wants of the people. The poor tax-payers, and not the rich tax-dodgers, have my sympathy. I promise, if nominated and elected, that the rich and corporate interests of this county shall pay their full and just share of taxes.

The high taxes in this county are largely due to the neglect on the part of officials to require those who own the wealth of the county to list and pay taxes upon what they own.

If favors are to be shown in the matter of payment of taxes, they should be shown to the poor, and not to the rich.

I am not the hired attorney of any railroad, corporation or tax-dodging individual, and if nominated and elected County Attorney will be under no obligation to favor any of those who seek to avoid the just payment of taxes and that to the detriment of "The great common people." I beg you to remember this when you go to cast your vote in the coming Primary.

I hope to see you personally before the Primary, and sincerely thanking you for past favors and for any assistance you may render me in the Primary, I am Sincerely your friend, I. R. HOLLON.

Strayed from the residence of Riley Taulbee, 8 geese—3 whiteanders, 3 pided and 2 blue ones. Please tell if you know of them.

"Watchman, What of the Night?"

The following excerpt is from an eloquent, forcible and ornate speech of Kentucky's big Congressman, Ollie James, delivered in Indiana:

"The immortal spirits whose hands guided the infant steps of this Republic, whose blood consecrated and made this land liberty's dearest shrine, cry out to the millions of voters into whose hands the further destiny of this union was lodged. 'Watchman, what of the night?' and from the orange groves of Florida to the waving wheat fields of the Northwest; from the nodding pines beyond the Alleghenies across the Rockies to the slopes by the peaceful sea, the men with ballot in hand 8,000,000 strong answer: 'The morning cometh'—the morning of Democratic victory, the morning of the Republic's hope, as fresh with due and promise of the Republic loved by every heart and defended by every hand, as when the dawn of liberty first tinted the colonial skies, proclaiming the golden rule of all Republics, that this government will not do for the greatest what it would deny the humblest, a government which offers to the wearer of the crown of a king and to the bearer of the staff of the shepherd the same justice."

Rheumatism Recipe.

A well-known authority on Rheumatism gives the following valuable, though simple and harmless, prescription, which any one can easily prepare at home:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Mix by shaking well in a bottle, and take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

He states that the ingredients can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy at small cost, and, being of vegetable extraction, are harmless to take.

This pleasant mixture, if taken regularly for a few days, is said to overcome almost any case of Rheumatism. The pain and swelling, if any, diminishes with each dose, until permanent results are obtained, and without injuring the stomach. While there are many so-called Rheumatism remedies, patent medicines, etc., some of which do give relief, few really give permanent results, and the above will, no doubt, be greatly appreciated by many sufferers here at this time.

Inquiry at the drug stores of this neighborhood elicits the information that these drugs are harmless and can be bought separately, or the druggists here will mix the prescription for our readers if asked to.

Times Do Change.

How times have changed! When you were young, people had bad colds, soaked their feet in hot water and got well; now they have grip, take quinine and fell sick all over. Then they had sore throat, wrapped a piece of fat pork in an sock, tied it around the neck at night and went to work next day; now they have tonsillitis, and surgical operation and two weeks in the house. Then they had stomach ache and took castor oil and recovered; now they have appendicitis, a week in the hospital and six feet due East and West and six feet perpendicular. They worked then; they labor now. In those days they wore underclothes; now they wear lingerie. Then they went to a restaurant; now they go to a cafe. Then they broke a leg; now they fracture a limb. People went crazy then; they have a brain storm now. Politicians then paid good hard cash for support; now they send Government garden seed.—Ex.

Tuesday next is election day and the ballots to be voted are not such insignificant pieces of paper as some may think. They will contain the names of the candidates for the various offices to be filled in the following order: Republican, Democratic, Prohibitionist, Socialist, Social-Labor, Populist and Independence parties.

Grand Lodge Officers.

At the annual election of the Grand Lodge of Masons, recently held at Louisville, the following officers were elected:

Miss Hanie Crase, of Insko, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. B. Stacey, of this place. We are glad to have girls in our neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. George Allen, of Buckhorn, visited relatives here last week. Mr. Allen will probably move to our neighborhood in the near future.

TOLEDO, OHIO.

The Best Known Newspaper in the United States.
CIRCULATION - 200,000.

Popular in Every State.

In many respects the TOLEDO BLADE is the most remarkable weekly newspaper published in the United States. It is the only newspaper especially edited for national circulation. It has had the largest circulation for more years than any newspaper printed in America. Furthermore, it is the cheapest newspaper in the world, as will be explained to any person who will write us for terms. The News of the World so arranged that busy people can more easily comprehend, than by reading cumbersome columns of dailies. All topics made plain in each issue by special editorial matter written from inception down to date. The only paper published especially for people who do not read daily newspapers, and yet thirst for plain facts. That this kind of a newspaper is popular, is proven by the fact that the Weekly Blade now has over 200,000 yearly subscribers, and is circulated in all parts of the United States. In addition to the news, the Blade publishes short and serial stories, and many departments of matter suited to every member of the family. Only one dollar a year. Write for free specimen copy. Coughs of Children Especially night coughs. Nature needs a little help to quiet the irritation, control the inflammation, check the progress of the disease. Our advice is—give the children Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Ask your doctor if this is his advice also. He knows best. Do as he says.

If you think constipation is of trifling consequence, just ask your doctor. He will disabuse you of that notion in short order. "Correct it, at once!" he will say. Then ask him about Ayer's Pills. A mild liver pill, all vegetable.

THE HERALD.

DRINK WAINSCOTT'S POP.

Miss Nora Lovelace, of Frozen, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Tom Haddix, of the Swango Spring neighborhood.

H. F. Pieratt, of Richmond, will be here about the middle of next week, and his near by neighbor, Charley Rose, will probably be here Saturday.

H. B. Kash, of Valeria, was in town last Thursday and had THE HERALD job department print some cards announcing his candidacy for assessor.

A child of Hira Mullins, who lives above Lee City, and was under treatment at Dr. Center's, aged about two years, died at the latter's residence Monday night.

Prof. H. J. Derthick left Tuesday for Chattanooga, Tenn., to be present at the meeting of the National Educational Association, where he is to deliver an address.

Miss Falay Long has on display at the millinery emporium a collection of handsomely mounted passe partout pictures, the handiwork our foreman. They look grand.

Mrs. A. P. Dye was taken seriously ill Sunday evening and is quite sick, but under the care of Dr. Nickell and faithful nurses it is hoped she will make a speedy recovery.

George Sandifer, of Lexington, came up last week and resumed his position in John H. Rose's blacksmith shop, Mr. Davenport having returned to his home in Illinois.

Do you want a handsome passe partout picture of the Hazel Green Academy and other buildings connected with it? If so, come to THE HERALD office and see what we have in that line.

The drouth in this section was partially broken by a steady soaking rain last Friday, but the country can stand about a week of that kind of weather before the wells, cisterns, ponds and creeks have filled up.

J. M. (Bud) Swango, candidate for the Democratic nomination for County Judge, was in Hazel Green Monday reminding his friends that the primary was drawing near and left an order for some printing at this office.

T. F. Stamper, chairman of the Democratic County Central Committee, came over from Campton last Saturday and made a contract with THE HERALD to print the ballots for the Democratic primary election which is to be held Saturday, November 14.

Miss Arta Dye with her Consolation school repaid the visit of Edgar Alexander, of Caskey school, last Friday afternoon, with an arithmetic contest, which resulted in a glorious victory for the Consolation pupils. Much to the delight of the patrons and instructors also. The pupils displayed their knowledge in a delightful manner on both sides, and the difficult work seemed only a refreshment to them.

A Noble Deed.

The Hazel Green Cemetery Association are proud to announce that J. G. Trimble, of Mt. Sterling, and Frank Trimble, of Memphis, Tenn., recently purchased two acres and — poles as an addition to the cemetery, which they donated to the association. These gentlemen are both natives of Hazel Green and in thus donating this addition to our "City of the Dead," they show their patriotism and the esteem in which they hold their dead relatives whose remains rest there. The cost to them was $240, and it is an absolute gift upon their part, and the association, which is composed largely of ladies, are very grateful to them. Other native born citizens, now living at distant points, could show their love and respect by emulating their example, and all who can, are requested to do so.

DIED, of typhoid fever, C. L. Felkner, at the residence of his father-in-law, Joshua DeBusk, 8 miles west of Sentinel. Deceased was an enterprising citizen and was greatly esteemed by all his neighbors; was 29 years old, a member of the Baptist church and an officer in that congregation. The funeral was conducted by Undertaker Burke, of Hobart, and the burial services performed by Rev. Smith, at Retrop, at which place the remains were laid to rest. The deceased leaves a wife (a sister of J. R. DeBusk) one child and many relatives and friends to mourn his loss.—Sentinel (Okla.) Newsboy.

Sad Accident.

News reached here Wednesday evening last, but too late for the current issue, of the sad accident which befell the 12-year-old son of Mat Spencer, a prominent farmer of near Rogers, who, while out hunting, set the stock of the gun on a log, the gun slipped off the log, the hammer catching, discharging the gun, hitting the boy under the left eye, blowing out his brains and killing instantly. The boy had been dead about four hours before his body was found by members of the family.

The Ladies Aid Society decided to hold, as usual, a Bazaar about Thanksgiving time, the proceeds of which are to be equally divided between the Cemetery Association and C. W. B. M. Auxiliary of this place. The former will use it's fund for improving the cemetery grounds while the latter will make a Centennial offering out of its share of the proceeds.

As this is of interest to all we ask and hope that everyone will contribute generously for the Bazaar.

The ladies of the Methodist church will serve hot soup, hot and cold lunches, ice cream and cake, and other palatable refreshments on election day, next Tuesday. When you come in to vote call on them and satisfy your appetite, and at the same time help a worthy cause, as the proceeds go toward building a parsonage which is badly needed.

Grandmother Wells, of Wellington, who is visiting relatives at this place, has been the guest of honor at the home of Miss Arta Dye this week. We should pay grandma the highest respect while here for she was a frequent visitor at Hazel Green when there was but one dwelling house to mark the place where now stands a beautiful little town.

John Ward, who just returned from Louisville, as delegate to the Grand Lodge, A. F. M. en route home stopped with our former citizen H. F. Pieratt, and tells us that Mr. Pieratt and Roe Nickell, both of whom live near Richmond, are hauling water from Silver creek, a mile away.

John Ward delegate from Mizpah Lodge, No. 507, to the Grand Lodge at Louisville, returned home Monday very much pleased with his trip. His daughter, Miss Lou, accompanied him, and en route home stopped with H. F. Pieratt and wife to spend a week.

IN MEMORIAM.

HENRY LIVINGSTON GODSEY, the subject of this sketch, was born in Hazel Green, September 16, 1868, and died in Washington, D. C., September 22, 1908. He attended the public school here and was always considered a bright scholar. Then he went to Centre College, at Danville, and even in his first year developed an oratorical talent which was often referred to as in line with the celebrated class of '87. For instance: In his first year, 1889, at Centre College, as a member of the sub-freshman class, he won first honors. In June, 1888, at the same college, he was awarded first honors in an oratorical contest; also in a delamatory contest in November, 1889, and an oratorical contest in February, 1890. Then in the inter-collegiate contest, April, 1890, in which some eight or ten colleges were represented, he won the prize, and followed that victory by winning the Chautauqua prize, both of the latter contests being held at Lexington, "the Athens of the West."

He was appointed assistant enrolling clerk of the Kentucky House of Representatives in the spring of 1890, which he filled to the satisfaction of all.

In 1892 he graduated at Centre College with the degree of A. B., and represented that college in an oratorical contest given by the Chautauqua Assembly to Kentucky colleges at Lexington, July, 1892. In these, his school days, his name was mentioned as the pride of our state, and his brilliant career as an orator was held for emulation by the rising generation. He was a member of the faculty of Hazel Green Academy in 1893.

He was secretary to Congressman Marcus C. Lisle from August, 1895, to July, 1894, when he was appointed disbursing clerk and superintendent of postoffice department of the treasury at Washington, D. C. During the summer of 1894 he was secretary to Congressman Beckner. He was appointed superintendent of the stamp vault of the treasury department March 11, 1895, which position he held up to the time of his death, with only eleven days absent from the office, except his regular vacation, which he always spent with his parents and friends at home.

He always spoke of Hazel Green as dearest spot on earth and our people as the best living. He was urged by many friends to enter the present race for congress. But not having thought of the matter earlier he decided to wait the next campaign with the assurance of many, many friends that he should then have their support. But at the moment of his highest ambition and anticipated glory death sent an unerring dart and his heart ceased to throb, and the path of glory led only to the grave. He was a member of and a firm believer in the faith of the Christian church, a Democrat from the cradle and a Sigma Chi Fraternity. Faithful in his office duties and so busy all his life. He had prepared himself in the law school of Washington University for the practice of law, but a weak heart from a severe attack of typhoid fever while attending school at Danville, caused him to hesitate about beginning the practice.

Notwithstanding the enormous cost of living in Washington, he saved a nice little sum, which he left his mother, who appreciates it as she reverts his memory. Twice a year his office was rigidly investigated and found correct to a quarter of a cent. Nothing too commendable can be said of such a noble character, and "Well done, thou good and faithful servant," is just praise. Peace to his ashes.

Vote Democratic Ticket Tuesday.

While the element of doubt exists in some races during the election on Tuesday next it may be stated with reasonable certainty that the Democratic Judicial ticket will be elected by a majority in excess of any in recent years. The news comes to us that Breathitt county is hog-wild for Howard Stamper, for Commonwealth's Attorney, and Banford White, for Circuit Judge, will run a close second. The primary election, on the 14th of November, renders an accurate estimate on the result of the regular election peculiarly problematical. In fact, there is so much talk about county affairs that results in other counties are hardly canvassed. But Wolfe, we feel pretty sure, will give all the ticket an increased majority. Do your duty by voting the full Democratic ticket, and be sure to vote early.

Hon. A. B. Friend, Democratic elector from the tenth district addressed the people of Hazel Green at Pearro Hall Tuesday night, and was listened to with marked attention by a very intelligent audience. Many said he delivered the best campaign speech heard here since the days of "Little Mat Adams," who at one time was considered the best stump speaker in this section. Mr. Friend injected many anecdotes applicable to the situation, and friends of Judge Davis think he made many votes for the latter. In short his speech "took well," as doctors say in vaccination.

H. E. Oney was in town yesterday evening looking his political fences, and left an order at THE HERALD office for some cards to assist him in his canvass for county superintendent of schools.

ACADEMY NOTES.

Green Lacy, Goff Long and Gabriel Banks went home Saturday.

Prof. F. W. Long preached at Frenchburg Sunday morning and night.

Mr. Vaughn gave an excellent talk on Sunday school revival at the M. E. church Sunday night.

On account of the illness of the secretary, Miss Jo Hord Frank, the H. B. society program was postponed until next Saturday night.

Prof. M. O. Carter accompanied Mr. Vaughn, state field Sunday school worker, to Morgan county Sunday school association at Pekin Sunday.

The election is on the minds of the students. The faculty is conscientious about the leaders of each party, and appears to be numbers on each side.

Special Notice.

The directors of Hazel Green Bank are requested to meet at said bank Saturday, November 6, 1908. A full attendance is desired.

"My son John had epilepsy for years, and after having him treated by specialists for over 2 years he still continued to have spells. I had almost given up in despair, but knowing the virtue of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for sick headache, I concluded to try the Nervine. During June, 1908, I gave him a teaspoonful three times a day, then in July I gave it as directed, and I could see that he was improving, and he has not had a spell since August 28, 1906, and has taken no medicine since Jan.-07. I am writing the case just as it is hoping it will induce others to try it."

KENTUCKY KERNELS

Carefully Collected and Concisely Chronicled.

John McCarty, Pendleton county, was trying a gun, for which he was about to trade, when the barrel burst and tore off his left hand at the wrist.

Nick Jacobs, a young farmer of Ballard county, was killed while cutting timber near Oscar. He chopped down a large tree which crushed him when it fell.

Ruck Cottongame, the Breathitt county feudist who killed Farrish Arnett in Ohio some time since, has been indicted by the grand jury of Butler county, O., for murder in the first degree.

John Prescott, aged 19 years, one of men indicted for participation in the night riders' raid on Birmingham, shot and killed himself in the presence of his father at his home in Lyons county.

Mrs. Katherine McCreary, wife of Senator James B. McCreary, died last Thursday night at the family residence in Richmond. Mrs. McCreary had been ill for two years and in the last two weeks failed rapidly.

Night riders warned J. W. Clinkenbeard, a candidate for magistrate in Bath county, to withdraw. Mr. Clinkenbeard took an active part in the effort to bring the guilty to justice following several barn burnings last spring.

Asbury Hatfield, leader of the Hatfield-McCoy feud, was shot to death by his own son, James Hatfield, in Hardin county, when the latter learned from his sister of the abuse the father had subjected her to. He was arrested and gave bond.

The unwritten law resulted in a verdict of acquittal in the case against Mrs. Nancy Murrill for killing Mary Terry in Breathitt county. The defense proved that at the time she shot the Terry woman the defendant was in Mrs. Terry's embrace.

Thomas E. Pugh, a notary public of Fullerton, in Greenup county, has filed suit for $2,000 damages against the C. & O. railroad company, alleging that he lost the sight of one eye by a hot cinder blowing into it while riding on one of trains to Greenup.

In Judge Lane's court, at Owingsville, last week, Ewing Wilson, William Coffin and Drummer McKee were fined $15, $10 and $5, respectively, for shooting rabbits out of season. Jim Wilson, of Sharpburg, was fined $35 in the same court for stealing five potatoes.

James K. Polk Elliston, a farmer of Grant county, was found dead in bed at a hotel in Williamstown. He was about 63 years old and served in the federal army during the civil war. His twin brother, G. D. M. Elliston, who survives him, served four years on the Confederate side.

The efforts of the Fayette county grand jury in ferreting out the mysterious disappearance of Willis E. Smith, the State University student who has not been seen for over a month, proved futile, although fifty persons, including students and professors in the college, relatives of the boy and others were closely examined.

Charles and Millard Hale, aged 6 and 9 years, respectively, were wounded by the explosion of a railroad torpedo at their home in Brimfield, Boyle county. The children found the torpedo and took it home to use as a target. The first missile thrown hit the torpedo and caused it to explode. The children are not expected to live.

Suit was brought in the Lee Circuit court last week by John W. Duncan against the city of Beattyville for $20,000 damages. Duncan is one of the Madison county jurors summoned last November to try B. F. French, charged with complicity in the killing of J. B. Marcum at Jackson, and fell over the railing of the bridge into the creek.

John Ray, an attaché of the Climax club, Lexington, was held up and robbed Friday night, about eight o'clock. He was sitting alone in a room reading when a stranger entered and, after a few casual remarks, drew a pistol and ordered Ray to throw up his hands and turn his face to the wall. The man then went through Ray's pockets and several desk and table drawers, securing about $1,000 and making his escape.

Five persons lost their lives at Paintsville last week when their residence was burned. George Stoddard, two daughters and a son were cremated, and Mrs. Stoddard's neck was broken when she jumped from a second story window. Frank Stoddard, a 15-year-old son who escaped and witnessed the holocaust, went hopelessly insane and his life is despaired of. The aged parents of Geo. Stoddard, who live in Lexington, are prostrated over the tragic occurrence and fears are entertained for their recovery.

The big wildest land suit of the commonwealth of Kentucky against the heirs of C. O. Lockhart was tried at Hyden last week and decided in favor of the commonwealth. The case involved a big wildest survey that covers over 80,000 acres of land in Harlan and Leslie counties. The commonwealth won on the ground that the Lockhart heirs had failed to comply with the late revenue act that requires all land claimants to list their land, and failing to do so for five years a suit can be brought in favor of the commonwealth to forfeit the title of such claimants. This case will be taken to the Court of Appeals and if affirmed will mean much to the citizens of the mountains.

Nervous or Sick Headache will yield quickly to the influence of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. 25 doses 25 cents.

Democratic Primary Call.

At a called meeting of the Wolfe County Democratic Executive Committee which met pursuant to call at the court house in the town of Campton, Wolfe county, Kentucky, in the County School Superintendent's Office, on the 7th day of September, 1908, the following members of said committee (being a majority of same and a quorum) were present: Chairman, T. F. Stamper; 1st precinct, Floyd Arnett; 2nd precinct, J. P. Rose; 3rd precinct, J. C. Lykins by proxy, Arthur Lykins; 4th precinct, W. W. Bryant; 5th precinct, David Banks; 6th precinct, J. C. Floyd Arnett tendered his resignation as secretary of said committee, which resignation was accepted.

Motion was made by Floyd Arnett, and seconded by W. W. Bryant, that A. B. Cox be made secretary of said committee. Motion carried and A. B. Cox, committeeman from the 9th precinct, was elected secretary of the committee.

The purpose of the meeting having been stated by the Chairman, T. F. Stamper, to be to name the time and manner of selecting nominees of the Democratic party as candidates for the various county offices, to be voted for at the regular November election, 1909, the resolutions, upon motion having been made by W. W. Bryant, and seconded by Walter Oliver, were unanimously adopted by the said committee.

Resolved, 1st—That a Primary Election shall be held in each of the nine precincts of Wolfe county, Kentucky, on the 14th day of November, 1908, between the hours of 6 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m., the polls therefore to be opened at the regular voting place in each of said precinct, for the purpose of nominating Democratic candidates for each of the county offices to be voted for at the regular election to be held in November, 1909, the candidates to be selected being a candidate each for the following named offices: County Judge, Sheriff, Superintendent of Schools, County Court Clerk, Circuit Court Clerk, County Attorney, Assessor, Jailor, Coroner and Surveyor.

2nd—That all Democrats of the county who will be eligible to election for the respective offices to which they aspire at the regular November, 1909, election, and who shall conform to the requirements, rules and regulations of this Primary Call, as herein set out, shall be eligible to, and may be voted for, as candidates before the said Primary for the nomination as a candidate for such of said offices as they may make known their desires to be candidate for, in the manner hereinafter prescribed; provided, however, that no one man shall be a candidate for more than one of the said offices hereinbefore named.

3rd—Any person or persons desiring to become a candidate for nomination for any of the offices before named herein, shall, on or before the 30th day of October, 1908, send last named date being just fifteen days before the time set herein on which said Primary Election is to be held, make known to this committee the office for which he desires to become a candidate, by so notifying the chairman of this committee, either orally or writing, of the office for which he desires to be a candidate before said Primary, and if he desires to be a candidate for any one of the first named eight offices herein he shall pay to the said chairman of this committee and take his receipt therefor, the sum of $5.00, or if he desires to be a candidate for the office either of Coroner or Surveyor, he shall likewise make known his intention and pay to said chairman the sum of $2.50, said amount so paid to be used in helping to defray the expenses of this Primary Election. Except that, if the chairman of the said committee is absent from the county or state, or cannot be found, then the secretary of said committee shall be notified in the manner hereinbefore indicated for the notification of the chairman and the same funds shall be paid to him and for the same purpose as hereinbefore required to be paid to the chairman. Those who are first to register shall have their names placed first on the ballots to be voted for for the respective offices for which they are candidates, and so on, having preference for places on the ballots in the order in which they are so run—that is to say, whoever registers first for any office shall have his name printed first on the ballot as a candidate for that said office, and whoever registers last shall likewise have his name printed last as a candidate for said office, and so on through. Any one so notifying this committee and thus becoming a candidate shall be bound by all the rules, regulations and requirements of the Democratic party and the law of this state governing primary elections. And any person who shall have paid to the committee as hereinbefore mentioned his registry fee, shall not be entitled to recover any of same from the said committee, by action or otherwise, even though after depositing same he should withdraw from the primary and have his name withdrawn; and whatever amount, if any, of funds remaining in the hands of this committee, after the expenses of the primary election have been paid, shall be used by the said committee to defray the expenses (lawful) of the party in effecting proper party organization over the county; and in case a sufficient amount of money is not paid to the committee to pay the expenses of the primary in the way above designated, then those candidates who shall have been declared the nominees for the respective offices in the manner hereinafter prescribed, shall pay to said committee what ever balance of said primary expenses remain unpaid, ratably and in proportion to the amount required herein to be first paid by the candidates for the respective offices.

4th—All persons shall be allowed a vote for a candidate each for the various county offices who are at the time legal electors in the precinct where they apply for the privilege to vote, and who are known by the respective primary election boards to be Democrats or who will make oath that they did not vote for any Republican candidate before the people to be voted for at the regular November election, 1908, provided they conform to the conditions and qualifications prescribed by the committee having control of said primary; and provided further, that all male citizens of this county and state otherwise entitled to vote but who are not yet 21 years of age and who will be at least 21 years of age at the time of holding the regular election in 1909 (November) shall be entitled to vote in this election; and provided further, that all persons desiring to vote in this Primary Election, shall, if requested to do so by either of the judges of said election at their respective voting places, be required to make affidavit that they will support all persons nominated for the various offices by said primary.

5th—This committee shall meet again at the court house in the town of Campton, Wolfe county, Ky., in the county attorney's office, if available, otherwise in some other room of said court house, on the 4th day of November, 1908, at which the committee shall declare who are candidates to be voted for at the said primary election, and shall at the same time and place make proper provision for having the ballots for the various precincts throughout the county printed and distributed, and shall at the same time and place and in the manner prescribed by law elect and appoint the various precincts of the county, that may be appointed at that time, to-wit: Two judges, a sheriff and a clerk for each precinct of the county.

6th—Within two days after the said primary election shall have been held and conducted as herein provided, the election officers of the various precincts, after having performed the other duties of their respective offices required and enjoined upon them by law, deliver to the chairman of this committee the ballot box and the poll books, certificates and the envelope containing the spoiled, mutilated and questioned ballots, and the keys to the ballot box, together with the election seal, and the officers delivering same shall do so in the manner prescribed by law, and the officer receiving same shall receive same in the manner prescribed by law, at the court house in the town of Campton. On the third day after the holding of said election as herein prescribed, this committee shall again meet in the town of Campton in some convenient room or office, and shall then and there count the votes received by all candidates in such primary election and shall declare the candidates receiving the highest number of votes the nominees for the respective offices for which they were voted for at said primary election. The said committee shall have the power and authority to declare the nominee in case of a tie vote between any two candidates for any of said offices, as well as any and all contests arising from said primary election.

7th—Notice of this primary election call shall be given by this committee at least forty days prior to the date of holding said election by the chairman, or secretary, or chairman and secretary hereof, posting said notice at the court house door and at least twenty other public places in the county of Wolfe.

8th—That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the HAZEL GREEN HERALD.

9th—That this committee do now adjourn to meet again at the place hereinbefore designated on the 4th day of November, 1908.
